Federal Boss Says His Organization Will Make Wholesale Raid Next October.

By THOMAS KIRBY.

CHICAGO, June 12-"If it comes down te a financial proposition. Walter Johnson will either be in the Federal League next season, or he will receive from the Washington olub the largest salary ever paid a ball player." This was the calm declaration of James Gilmore, president of the Federal League, who today admitted to the writer that the outlaws series. had already planned a campaign of raiding organized baseball for star playera before the beginning of another

Those who have been attempting to belittle the value of Joe Boehling received another rude jarring yesterday when the Virginian pitched a game against the White Sox that completely overshadowed the performance of Walter Johnson the day before.

Of late Boehling has had his worst experiences toward the close of the centest, but yesterday he reversed the order, and got all the bad stuff out of his system at the outser. Then he settled down and did really masterful work.

In the first inning a home run and a double gave the Sox a two-run lead before the engagement was fairly under way, and in the second Chicago got a couple of more hits that developed nothing in the scoring line

From then on to the ninth but three scattered hits were called off Boehling, and of these two were infield alfairs that could not be fielded in time to Runs-Sch

Smith proved an able substitute for Foster in the second, when he snagged a sharp grounder, tagged third on the force and ferried to Gandil in time to complete a double play.

Smith works under the handicap of a long term on the beach, and has gained a number of pounds since he quit understudying for McBride in the exhibition scries.

It has been proven that a team cannot suddenly encounter 100 degree weather and hold the speed which it caught on the fields where the conditions were less torrid.

Those who have been at the conditions were less torrid.

Gandil's single scored Milan with the second one.

The Griffmen got one more in the ninth for good measure. Morgan was hit by a pitched ball and went in on McBride's sacrifice. Henry's single brought "Cutle" home. The score: CHICAGO.
